

CONTENTS

List of Contributors	vii
Introduction	ix
Kathy Ehrensperger, Nathan MacDonald, Luzia Sutter Rehmann
1. 'The Eyes of All Look to You': The Generosity of the Divine King Nathan MacDonald	1
2. Everyday Meals for Extraordinary People: Eating and Assimilation in the Book of Ruth Peter Altmann	15
3. Eating and Living: The Banquets in the Esther Narratives Susanne Plietzsch	27
4. You Are How You Eat: How Eating and Drinking Behaviour Identifies the Wise According to Jesus Ben Sirach Ursula Rapp	42
5. 'And All Ate and Were Filled' (Mark 6.42 par.): The Feeding Narratives in the Context of Hellenistic-Roman Banquet Culture Angela Standhartinger	62
6. The Various Tastes of Johannine Bread and Blood: A Multi-Perspective Reading of John 6 Esther Kobel	83
7. What Happened in Caesarea? Symphagein as Bonding Experience (Acts 10–11.18) Luzia Sutter Rehmann	99

8. To Eat or Not to Eat – Is this the Question? Table Disputes in Corinth Kathy Ehrensperger	114
9. The Power of an Invitation: Early Christian Meals in their Cultural Context Soham Al-Suadi	134
10. Meals as Acts of Resistance and Experimentation: The Case of the Revelation to John Hal Taussig	151
Bibliography	163
Index of Ancient Authors	177
Index of Modern Authors	179