

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ii
Executive summary	iii
Key to reading this alternative report	1
Methodology of the reporting process	5
Introduction: a socio-economic analysis of poverty, inequality and violence in Kenya	9
1. Criminalisation of the poor: arbitrary arrests and police corruption	12
1.2. Case-study: police violence against the poor in Westlands	14
Box 1. Forum on Youth and Socio-Economic Rights	15
2. Denied access to justice and high costs of legal assistance	16
3. Bail, remandees, prison overcrowding and torture	17
4. Police violence in informal settlements	19
Box 2. Forum on Informal Settlements	20
5. Extrajudicial killings in poor areas: the case of the Mungiki	21
6. Police violence against informal sector workers	23
7. Violence related to land disputes	24
7.1. Torture allegations in the Mount Elgon District	26
7.2. Public forum on access to land	28
Box 3. Forum on Access to Land	28

8. Violence against women in the socio-economic context of Kenya	30
8.1. Violence against women due to denials of their property rights	31
8.2. Denied access to justice for women due to lack of financial resources	33
8.3. Trafficking in women and children due to poverty	34
9. The socio-economic dimensions of violence against disadvantaged children	35
9.1. Poverty, child exploitation and child labour	36
Conclusions and recommendations	39
Box 4. A marginalised informal settlement in Buenos Aires	41
Box 5. Pune urban community	42
Appendices
Appendix: Agenda of the OMCT preparatory mission in Kenya	49