

Contents

| | |
|---|----|
| Introduction | 1 |
| I. Early Empires and Kingdoms in East Central Asia | 3 |
| 1. The Xiongnu, the First Steppe Nomad Empire | 4 |
| 1.1 The Chinese Sources | 4 |
| 1.2 The Early Xiongnu and their Ancestors | 4 |
| 1.3 The Xiongnu Rise to Power | 8 |
| 1.4 The Xiongnu Exact Tribute from China | 12 |
| 1.5 The Xiongnu and China Fight Over East Turkestan | 14 |
| Excursus: Ambassador Zhang Qian Scouts Out the Silk Road to Sogdiana and Bactria | 15 |
| 1.6 China Acquires 'Horses that Sweat Blood' and East Central Asia Becomes a Chinese Protectorate | 18 |
| 1.7 The Collapse of the Xiongnu Steppe Empire | 25 |
| 1.8 Xiongnu Customs in Life and Death | 29 |
| 1.9 The Second Chinese Protectorate over the 'Western Regions' | 33 |
| 2. The Wusun | 37 |
| 3. The Parthians: An Empire between East and West | 39 |
| 4. Kingdoms of Central Asian Peoples in Afghanistan and the North of the Indian Subcontinent | 43 |
| 4.1 The Indo-Greek Kingdoms | 44 |
| 4.2 The Indo-Saka Rulers | 45 |
| 4.3 The Indo-Parthian Kingdom | 46 |
| 4.4 The Yuezhi and the Kushan Empire | 46 |
| 4.4.1 The 'Long March' of the Yuezhi | 47 |
| 4.4.2 The Kushan Empire | 47 |
| 4.4.3 Silk and the Kushan Trade Network | 54 |
| 4.4.4 The Kushan Pantheon and its Dynastic Art | 56 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| II. Early Buddhism in Central Asia and the Gandhara School | 59 |
| 1. Indian Buddhism before the Kushans | 60 |
| 2. Diffusion into Central Asia | 61 |
| Excursus: A Murder Uncovers East Turkestan's Pre-Islamic Past | 66 |
| 3. The Art of Gandhara | 66 |
| III. The Migration of Hunnic Peoples to Northern China, Central Asia and Eastern Europe | 81 |
| 1. Mongolia and North-West China: the 'Barbarian' Kingdoms of the Xiongnu, the Xianbei and the Rouran, supporters of Buddhism | 82 |
| 1.1 The Four Xiongnu States and the Emergence of Early Buddhist Art in North-West China | 83 |
| 1.2 The Northern Wei and the Yungang Grottoes | 86 |
| 1.3 The Rouran and Gaoche | 90 |
| 2. Hunnic Peoples of Central Asia | 94 |
| 2.1 The Chionites | 94 |
| 2.2 The Kidarites | 96 |
| 2.3 The Central Asian Hephthalites | 97 |
| 2.4 The Alkhan | 99 |
| 2.5 The Nezak | 100 |
| 3. Pre-Islamic Chorasnia | 101 |
| 4. The Huns of Eastern Europe | 105 |
| IV. The Kingdoms of the Tarim Basin and their Schools of Buddhist Art | 113 |
| 1. The Archaeological Exploration of the Tarim Basin – An Overview | 114 |
| 1.1 Early Explorers of the Southern Silk Road | 114 |
| 1.2 The Riddle of the Lop Nor Lake – Nikolay Przhevalsky and Sven Hedin | 117 |
| 1.3 Sir Aurel Stein, Pioneer Archaeologist of the Tarim Basin | 123 |
| 1.4 The Exploration of the Northern Silk Road | 129 |
| 1.5 Latest Research | 133 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 2. The Southern Silk Road | 136 |
| 2.1 Kashgar and Yarkand | 136 |
| 2.2 The Kingdom of Khotan | 138 |
| 2.2.1 Origins and History | 138 |
| 2.2.2 Artworks in the Sands | 142 |
| Excursus: Jade, Silk and Paper | 148 |
| 2.3 The Kingdom of Shan-shan | 151 |
| 3. The Northern Silk Road | 158 |
| 3.1 The Kingdom of Kucha | 158 |
| 3.2 The Kingdoms of Jiaohe and Gaochang in the Turfan Oasis | 166 |
| Excursus: The Karez Irrigation System | 170 |
| | |
| V. The First Turkic Khaganate | 173 |
| 1. A Two-in-One Khaganate | 174 |
| 1.1 A Military and Commercial Alliance with Byzantium | 175 |
| 1.2 Buddhism, Funerary Rituals, and the Splitting of the Khaganate | 182 |
| 2. The Eastern Turkic Khaganate | 187 |
| Excursus: Chinese Pilgrim Monks | 193 |
| 3. The Western Turkic Khaganate | 198 |
| | |
| VI. Turkic Kingdoms of Eastern Europe | 207 |
| 1. The Empire of the Avars (568–796) | 208 |
| 2. The Pre-Christian Bulgar Empires | 209 |
| 2.1 Great Bulgaria on the Sea of Azov | 209 |
| 2.2 The Empire of the Volga Bulgars | 210 |
| 2.3 The First Empire of the Danube Bulgars | 211 |
| Excursus: Ahmad ibn Fadlan's Journey to the Volga Bulgars | 213 |
| 3. The Khazars and the Adoption of Judaism | 213 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| VII. The Sogdians | 221 |
| 1. A Trade Empire from the Crimea to China | 222 |
| 1.1 Sogdian Trade before Old Turkic Rule | 222 |
| 1.2 The Sogdian-Turkic Alliance | 226 |
| 2. Sogdian Religion and Art | 231 |
| Excursus: The Church of the East | 238 |
| 3. De Facto Independence under Nominal Chinese Rule | 242 |
| 4. The Arab Conquest of Sogdiana | 244 |
| | |
| VIII. The Second Turkic Khaganate and the Türgesh | 255 |
| 1. The Unification of the Turkic Tribes | 256 |
| 2. A Short-Lived Great Power | 258 |
| 3. The Western Turkic Türgesh | 267 |
| | |
| IX. China, Tibet and the Arabs: The Struggle for Supremacy in Central Asia | 271 |
| 1. The Emergence of Tibet as a Major Central Asian Power | 272 |
| 2. Sassanid Princes Seek Chinese Military Assistance | 280 |
| 3. The Tibetan-Chinese War in the Pamirs | 281 |
| 3.1 The Turkic-Sogdian Insurrection of An Lushan | 285 |
| 4. East Turkestan and the Pamirs under Tibetan Suzerainty | 289 |
| 4.1 The Tibetan Reconquest | 289 |
| 4.2 Central Asian Influence on Tibetan Culture | 292 |
| 4.3 Tibetan Withdrawal from Central Asia | 295 |
| | |
| X. The Uyghurs | 297 |
| 1. The Early Period | 298 |
| 2. The Uyghur Empire | 299 |
| Excursus: Manichaeism | 305 |
| 3. The Flight of the Uyghur Tribes | 310 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 3.1 Refugees at China's Northern Border | 310 |
| 3.2 Western Uyghur Kingdoms | 311 |
| 3.2.1 The Kingdom in Gansu | 312 |
| 3.2.2 The Kingdom of Kocho | 313 |
| | |
| XI. Outlook | 317 |
| | |
| Appendix | |
| The Most Important Dynasties and Rulers of Central Asia | 322 |
| | |
| Notes | 326 |
| | |
| Bibliography | 357 |
| | |
| List of Maps | 382 |
| | |
| Photo Credits | 383 |
| | |
| Acknowledgements | 384 |
| | |
| Index | 385 |
| Concepts | 385 |
| People | 391 |
| Places | 395 |