

Contents

01 –	Introduction	– 12
	Watch the Swiss	14
	Karen Horn and Gerhard Schwarz
02 –	Against the Tide	– 18
	In the stranglehold of freedom-choking visible hands	20
	Wolfgang Kasper
	A model liberal country in rough water	24
	Wolfgang Schüssel
03 –	Beauty of Smallness	– 28
	Small political units and non-centralism	30
	Oliver Hartwich
	An allergy to grand projects	33
	Alberto Mingardi
04 –	Direct Democracy	– 36
	The centre-piece of European western civilisation	38
	Udo Di Fabio
	Democracy close to the classical ideal	42
	François Garçon
	Complex sets of balances of power	45
	Jonathan Steinberg
05 –	Functioning Federalism	– 48
	Strength of character and subsidiarity	50
	Wolfgang Clement

Watch the Swiss	9
-----------------	---

	Limits on government size and taxes	53
	Detmar Doering
	Federal theology and property commons	57
	Carlo Lottieri
06	– Union in Diversity	– 60
	Radical change is taking place	62
	Ottmar Hitzfeld
	Peaceful co-existence and prosperity	66
	Richard W. Rahn
	A nation by will defined by its diversity	69
	Helen Zille
07	– Commitment to Liberty	– 72
	Not just brotherly love, democracy and peace	74
	Jeremy Jennings
	A blend of liberalism and conservatism	78
	Razeen Sally
	A grown-up attitude to the state	81
	Franz Schellhorn
08	– Economic Wisdom and Reliability	– 84
	The ability to evolve and adapt	86
	Bill Emmott
	Interdependence, not isolation	89
	Lim Siong Guan

09 _	Through the Looking-Glass	_ 92
	A thorn in the European side	94
	Karen Horn
	Medieval relic and post-modern state	98
	Harold James
	The safe haven of Switzerland	102
	Pedro Schwartz
	An ideal and an inspiration	106
	Krassen Stanchev
10 _	Freedom Remembered	_ 110
	A hidden treasure	111
	Karen Horn
	Freedom remembered	112
	Sándor Márai
11 _	Bibliography	_ 120