

CONTENTS

---

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	7
1 GETTING STARTED	11
1.1 What is this fieldbook and who is it for?	12
1.2 Why act today: facing the gap	12
1.3 From data to understanding to insights to actions	13
1.4 Why preparing your organization for the future matters: CEO perspectives	19
1.5 How to use this fieldbook	20
2 WHAT'S CHANGING: BUILDING A POINT OF VIEW ON THE FUTURE	21
2.1 Building a point of view on the future	22
2.2 What are valuable resources and who controls them?	23
• The potential for food insecurity
• The potential for tensions over water
• The race for the Arctic: the next emerging market
• U.S. (and others') energy independence
• Cutting-edge materials are impacting how things are made
• Technology advances are reshaping the production landscape
• The human race with and against the machine
2.3 How is the world organized – and reorganizing itself?	32
• Economic power shifts – with different mindsets
• Slowdown in China – the knock-on effects
• Environment: towards conscious/responsible capitalism
• Digitization is driving growth and job creation, BUT not everyone is ready – interconnected but unequal
• The “breakdown” of the traditional shopping experience
2.4 Who is shaping the future?	40
• Generational shifts
• Power shifts from institutions to individuals/communities
• The privacy issue

CONTENTS

---

2.5	The implications of a changing world	47
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The fight for control &amp; access: the evolving challenge</li><li>• The fight for rules of engagement: the evolving challenge</li><li>• The fight for value creation &amp; capture: the evolving challenge</li><li>• The fight for values &amp; beliefs: the evolving challenge</li></ul>
2.6	Five imperatives for business...	55
2.7	Five imperatives for society...	57
2.8	Building a point of view on the future: the role of scenarios	59
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• National Intelligence Council: Global Trends 2030, Alternative Worlds</li><li>• Shell: New Lens Scenarios – A shift in perspective for a world in transition</li><li>• Deutsche Post DHL: Delivering tomorrow – Logistics 2050</li><li>• Industrial Research Institute: Four future scenarios and implications for research and management</li></ul>
3	THINKING DIFFERENTLY – 8 PRINCIPLES FOR PREPARING YOUR ORGANIZATION, AND YOURSELF, FOR THE FUTURE	63
3.1	Embrace ambiguity: don't just think outside the box, throw away the boxes	64
3.2	Think first from the outside-in, then inside-out	66
3.3	Identify and address root causes, not symptoms	67
3.4	Practice two-directional thinking	68
3.5	Manage in relationships/networks versus transactions	70
3.6	Focus on co-creation	71
3.7	Align purpose and profit	73
3.8	Embed continual challenge, avoid complacent compliance	74

CONTENTS

---

4	PREPARING BUSINESS FOR THE FUTURE	75
4.1	Rethinking the business landscape	77
4.2	Preparing business for the future: case studies	80
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• BMW: redefining personal transportation</li><li>• DSM: reinventing mature industries</li><li>• Tencent takes on the world</li></ul>
4.3	In brief examples of businesses preparing for the future	86
4.4	Food for thought on the future landscape of business	88
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The tech visionaries reinventing the world</li><li>• Responsible capitalism – myths and realities</li><li>• Nokia's demise</li><li>• Fighting for the future: BRICS versus beyond BRICS</li><li>• Preparing for the digital generation</li></ul>
4.5	Summary: 8 principles of preparing for the future in action in business	95
5	PREPARING GOVERNMENTS FOR THE FUTURE	99
5.1	The shifting landscape of governance	101
5.2	How are governments preparing for the future? Case studies	107
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Singapore Economic Development Board: building Singapore as the Asian capital</li><li>• Enterprise Ireland's Leadership for Growth Program: realizing the potential of government to drive growth</li><li>• Denmark: an ambition to be carbon neutral by 2050 .</li></ul>
5.3	In brief examples of governments preparing for the future	114
5.4	Food for thought on the future landscape of governments	116
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• South Africa – whose responsibility is it to address social challenges?</li><li>• Is China forward thinking or exploitative?</li></ul>
5.5	Summary: 8 principles of preparing for the future in action in governments	120

CONTENTS

---

6	PREPARING NGOS FOR THE FUTURE	123
6.1	The 21 st century NGO	125
6.2	How are NGOs preparing for the future? Case studies	129
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Catalyzing change: a new model of philanthropy – Realdania</li><li>• World Wildlife Fund (WWF) for a sustainable planet</li><li>• Synergos: building networks for collaboration</li></ul>
6.3	In brief examples of NGOs preparing for the future	137
6.4	Food for thought on the future landscape of NGOs	138
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The rise of philanthrocapitalism and impact investment</li><li>• Social innovation through the Granny Cloud</li><li>• Watsi: crowdfunded medical treatment for the developing world</li></ul>
6.5	Summary: 8 principles of preparing for the future in action in NGOs	142
7	PREPARING SOCIETIES AND COMMUNITIES FOR THE FUTURE	145
7.1	The shifting boundaries of society	147
7.2	Preparing societies and communities for the future: case studies	149
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Medellín, Columbia: reinventing cities</li><li>• It's getting crowded: the rise of crowdfunding, crowdsourcing – and pretty much every other type of crowd'ing you can think of</li><li>• Understanding the power of access and not ownership – the emergence of the sharing economy</li></ul>
7.3	In brief examples of societies and communities preparing for the future	156
7.4	Food for thought on the future landscape of societies and communities	158
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The maker movement</li><li>• Resource colonization in Africa impacting communities</li><li>• Diasporas – the untapped potential?</li></ul>
7.5	Summary: 8 principles of preparing for the future in action in societies	161

CONTENTS

---

8	SPECIAL FOCUS: RESHAPING EDUCATION	165
8.1	The challenges for education	166
8.2	The need to rethink educational institutions	169
8.3	Whose role is it to educate for the skills of the future?	173
	ABOUT THE AUTHORS	175