

CONTENTS

TABLE OF FIGURES AND TABLES	7
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	8
1. INTRODUCTION	10
1.1 Overview	10
1.2 Dissertation outline	12
1.3 List of original articles	13
2. THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK	14
2.1 Roots of the sociomaterial perspective	14
2.2 Development of the activity theory	23
3. RESEARCH QUESTIONS	35
4. ATELIER DESIGN	36
4.2 Overview of the ateliers' set up and data collection	48
4.3 Educational practice influences	61
5. RESEARCH STUDIES	77
5.1 Exploring children agency in a designed atelier: a sociomaterial perspective	77
5.2 Sociomateriality as a partner in the polyphony of students' positioning	78
5.3 Learning Movements that emerge in a highly Educational Boundary Zone	94
5.4 Provoking social changes in a family-school space of activity	110
6. RESEARCHER PRACTICE	130
7. CONCLUSION	137
7.1 Main results of research studies	137
7.2 Implications for educational research and teaching practice	140
7.3 Openings: research perspectives	142
8. REFERENCES	145
9. ANNEXE	164