Part I Introduction to Simulation for Obstetrics and Gynecology

- 1 The History of Simulation in Obstetrics and Gynecology . . . . . 3
David Marzano
- 2 Simulation Education Theory . . . . . 11
Les R. Becker and Belinda A. Hermosura
- 3 Essentials of Scenario Building . . . . . 25
Toni Huebscher Golen
- 4 Essentials of Debriefing and Feedback . . . . . 39
Emily K. Marko
- 5 Communication and Teamwork Training in Obstetrics and Gynecology . . . . . 53
Christopher G. Goodier and Bethany Crandell Goodier
- 6 Competency Assessment in Simulation-Based Training:
Educational Framework and Optimal Strategies . . . . . 61
Etoi A. Garrison and Jessica L. Pippen
- 7 Licensure, Certification, and Credentialing . . . . . 71
E. Britton Chahine
- 8 Simulation and Patient Safety in Obstetrics and Gynecology . . . . . 77
Angela Chaudhari
- 9 The Why, Who, What, and Where to Implement a Simulation Program in Obstetrics and Gynecology . . . . . 87
Kay Daniels

Part II Simulation Modalities and Technologies in Obstetrics and Gynecology Simulation

- 10 Standardized Patients and Gynecological Teaching Associates 97
Lou Clark, Chelsea Weeks, Renee M. Dorsey, Vanessa
Strickland, and Shirley McAdam

11 Simulation Modalities for Obstetrics and Gynecology . . . . .	119
