

CONTENTS

1	The Humanitarian Disarmament Movement: An Assessment and Review	1
	Taylor Benjamin-Britton, Matthew Breay Bolton and Sarah Njeri
 Part I Emergence of Norms
2	When Scientists Become Activists: The International Committee for Robot Arms Control and the Politics of Killer Robots	27
	Matthew Breay Bolton and Cayman C. Mitchell
3	The Agency of International Humanitarian Disarmament Law: The Case of Advocacy for Positive Obligations in the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons	59
	Matthew Breay Bolton and Elizabeth Minor
4	Religious Advocacy and Activism for the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons	103
	Emily Welty with Gabrielle Chalk

Part II Challenges in Diffusing and Implementing Norms

- 5 US Arms Control Dynamics in the Era of Humanitarian Disarmament: A Case Study of the Convention on Cluster Munitions 141
Taylor Benjamin-Britton
- 6 The Politics of Non-recognition: Re-evaluating the Apolitical Presentation of the UN Humanitarian Mine Action Programs in Somaliland 169
Sarah Njeri

Part III The Wider Context

- 7 The Relationship Between Humanitarian Disarmament and General and Complete Disarmament 199
Dan Plesch and Kevin Miletic
- 8 Addressing the Political Impact of Inclusion and Exclusion in Multilateral Disarmament Forums 225
Elizabeth Minor
- Epilogue: Whither Humanitarian Disarmament? 253
Sarah Njeri, Matthew Breay Bolton
and Taylor Benjamin-Britton
- Index 261